God Calls Joshua (Joshua 1:1-17)

Before Moses died God instructed him to call Joshua to be the new leader of the Israelites. Moses laid his hands on Joshua, and because of this Joshua was full of wisdom.

After Moses died God spoke to Joshua and told him that it was time to cross the Jordan River into Canaan. This was the land God had promised to the Israelites as their new home. It was a large territory, stretching from the Jordan River to the Great Sea.

God said, “As I was with Moses I will be with you. I will not fail you or abandon you. Be strong and courageous and bring the people to their new homeland.”

God said again: “Be strong and courageous. Follow all Moses’s instructions. Don’t turn from the laws Moses gave you. If you don’t turn to the right or to the left, you will succeed wherever you go. Think about the law always, during the day and at night, and you will succeed wherever you go.”

God said a third time: “I command you, Joshua, to be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened for I am with you wherever you go.”

So Joshua told the people, “Get ready, because in three days you will cross the Jordan river. God will give us land there. It will be our new home.”

With gratitude and respect, we recognize that we are worshipping on the traditional land that once belonged to the Haudenosaunee and Anishnaabe peoples. We regret the lack of respect given to the Indigenous people in the past, and pledge to work for justice and reconciliation.
