Confession and Reconciliation

Leader: (reading Philippians 2:5-11)

“Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Who will confess Jesus as Lord today?

People: We will confess Jesus as Lord today.

Leader: We are all invited to confess Jesus as Lord today.
Let us bring ourselves to God in prayer.

People: Living God, give us the courage to confess your Son, Jesus, as our Lord.

Leader: When earthly powers claim supremacy,
we will confess Jesus as Lord.

People: When others vie for our loyalty,
we will confess Jesus as Lord.

Leader: When our souls hunger for reality and truth,
we will confess Jesus as Lord.

People: In the morning and in the evening,
we will confess Jesus as Lord.

Leader: Our generous God has provided for us.

Hymn: HWB (blue) #239 Ride on... (Entrance of the cross)

Hymn: Love the Lord Your God

Love the Lord your God with all your Heart and all your soul and all your Mind, and love all humankind
as you would love yourself.

Love the Lord your God
With all your heart,
And all your soul and mind and love humankind.

We've got Christian lives to live,
We've got Jesus' love to give,
We've got nothing to hide,
Because in God we abide.
(last time only) Love

Scripture reading: Luke 19:28-40 (NIV)

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, <sup>30</sup> "Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say, 'The Lord needs it.'"

<sup>32</sup> Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them. <sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

<sup>35</sup> They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup> As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road.

<sup>37</sup> When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen:

<sup>38</sup> "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!"
"Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

<sup>39</sup> Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

<sup>40</sup> "I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

Questions for your consideration

- 1) If you were on the Mount of Olives 2,000 years ago, who would you be in the story? Who resonates with you?
  - a) Would you be like the disciples and drop everything to follow Jesus? Would you try to follow his rules? Would you be a joyful follower, blessing Jesus, who comes in the name of the Lord?
  - b) Do you have sympathy for the Pharisees? How would you act like they did?
- 2) How do you interpret scripture? Are you “flexible in scriptural interpretation in the face of changing historical circumstances” or are you more a “letter of the law” kind of person?
- 3) Would God ever call you a hypocrite? Why?
- 4) Do you ever act as God’s calling card? What do you do?
- 5) What does it mean to set your face toward Jerusalem today?
- 6) Are you ready to save Jesus on Good Friday? What does that mean for you?
- 7) Are you ready to follow the risen Christ after Easter Sunday? What does that mean for you?
