Call to Worship and Invocation

Leader: We are here this morning to meet our brothers and sisters in Christ,

People: To talk together, to share the events of our lives with persons who listen and care.

Leader: We are here this morning to meet ourselves,

People: To reflect within, to enjoy the sounds of our own voices and the workings of our own minds.

Leader: We are here this morning to meet with God,

People: To pray, to listen, to communicate through worship our thanks and praise for God's loving contact with us.

All: This time of meeting is valuable and sustaining.
So let us worship with gratitude and gladness the God who draws us together.

With gratitude and respect, we recognize that we are worshipping on the traditional land that once belonged to the Haudenosaunee and Anishnaabe peoples. We regret the lack of respect given to the Indigenous people in the past, and pledge to work for justice and reconciliation.
