

Indigenous Authors – Fiction & Non-Fiction

There are increasingly more Canadian Indigenous authors being published. The list below is only a beginning. Reading some of these titles is an excellent way of gaining an understanding of Indigenous historic and current realities.

Check your local public library for more suggestions or visit Goodminds:: First Nations, Metis & Inuit Books

Michelle Good	Five Little Indians
Wab Kinew	The Reason We Walk
Thomas King	The Inconvenient Indian The Truth About Stories
Thomas King	The Inconvenient Indian The Truth About Stories
Tanya Talga	Seven Fallen Feathers All Our Relations
Jesse Thistle	From the Ashes
Kathleen Vermette (Metis stories, course language)	The Break The Strangers
Richard Wagamese	(Many excellent titles to choose from)
Sheila Watt-Cloutier	The Right to Be Cold: One Woman's Story of Protecting Her Culture, the Arctic and the Whole Planet
Jody Wilson Waibolt	Indian in Cabinet