

Songs That Go Like This* on Saturday, January 27, 2024 at 2:00pm and 7:30pm

at Harcourt Memorial United Church, 87 Dean Avenue in Guelph, Ontario

Conducted by Artistic Director Alison MacNeill (she/her) with Collaborative Pianist Chris Fischer (they/them)

Come hear the Rainbow Chorus of Waterloo-Wellington present Songs That Go Like This, a dose of queer choral joy is a perfect antidote to the winter blues. This concert was partially inspired by works heard at last season's Stratford Festival with a nod towards Spamalot with The Song That Goes Like This by Monty Python's Eric Idle as well as Johnathan Larson's beloved Seasons of Love from RENT. Favourites from Elton John, Gordon Lightfoot, Sara Bareilles, Erasure, and others will provide laughter, beauty, contemplation, and community.

Single tickets are available for $25/adults and $10/students online at rainbowchorus.ca

Last minute tickets available at the door as supplies last. Get yours now to avoid disappointment!

The Rainbow Chorus of Waterloo-Wellington is a community choir that welcomes members of all genders, sexualities, gender expressions, and allies of the 2SLGBTQIA+ community. No auditions are required of members and the chorus welcomes varying levels of musical skills, including those who do not read sheet music and who learn by listening and repetition.
